ALL-COUNTY LETTER NO. 83-65

TO: ALL COUNTY WELFARE DIRECTORS

SUBJECT: WIN REGISTRATION EXEMPTION - CARE OF A CHILD UNDER AGE SIX-
UNDERPAYMENT CORRECTION. (EAS SECTIONS 42-630.8, 42-638 AND 44-340)
REFERENCE: ALL-COUNTY LETTER NO. 83-19

On March 9, 1983, the Department of Social Services (DSS) issued ALL-COUNTY LETTER NO. 83-19 clarifying the Department's policy regarding the Work Incentive (WIN) registration exemption found in EAS Section 42-630.8. This policy establishes an exemption for caretakers with a child under age six except for those caretakers who are attending college full-time. This policy should be considered effective April 2, 1982. Prior to ALL-COUNTY LETTER NO. 83-19, some counties had established overpayments in cases because unregistered caretakers had been temporarily absent from the home for reasons other than full-time college attendance. Overpayment collections in such cases should be identified, and treated as underpayments to be corrected following the procedures in EAS Section 44-340.
